Eagle Valley Behavioral Health and Mountain Recreation believe that physical activity and having an active lifestyle contribute to improved behavioral and mental health outcomes. The Eagle Valley Behavioral Health Youth Scholarship is designed to provide equal access to our programs for children living in Eagle County, who without financial assistance, would not have the opportunity to participate in Mountain Recreation's youth activities.

Which Programs are Eligible?

Group youth programs or recreational sport activities offered by Mountain Recreation are eligible. Individual / private lessons, contractual programs or activities requiring team registration do not qualify. Special activity fees associated with field trips for camp programs are eligible for scholarship.

Who can Apply for a Scholarship?

- Any family residing within Eagle County with children old enough to participate in programs.
- All children within the family will qualify based on the income standards of the free/reduced lunch program guidelines.
- A new application is required each calendar year (January 1st – December 31st).

All scholarships are subject to availability of funds and class space. The scholarships are awarded on a first-come, first-serve basis for eligible recipients. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Application Process

1. Complete this application form. Forms are also available at the Recreation Center in Gypsum, the Pool and Ice Rink in Eagle, and the Fieldhouse in Edwards.
2. Please provide a confirmation letter indicating free or reduced lunch qualification from the school district when submitting application.
3. Parents with children not enrolled in Eagle County Schools need to provide a copy of their previous year's tax returns and if their income meets the Free & Reduced lunch criteria, they will be eligible.
4. Deliver completed application, with required documentation, to the nearest Mountain Recreation facility.
5. Upon approval, the scholarship will be added to the household account for use in registering each child for recreation programs.
6. Please call (970) 688-7324 for more information or questions concerning the program.

Confidentiality

Mountain Recreation will use application information only for approval of a youth scholarship. Strict confidentiality will be maintained at all times during the decision and registration processes. Program leaders will not be informed of a participant's scholarship status.
